About BKR International

BKR International is a public accounting association of more than 160 leading-edge accounting firms with over 500 offices in over 80 countries around the world.

The International Accounting Bulletin (IAB) has ranked BKR number 9 worldwide, after the Big 4, with more than US $1.35 billion in revenue.

BKR International was formed in 1989 as the result of a merger of the U.S. -based National CPA Group and certain members of DHR International, an association comprised primarily of European accounting firms.

The Power of the BKR Association (a top 10 public accounting association)

BKR firms combine resources and share information to increase their competitive advantages, improve the quality and range of their work, and better serve their clients. Members are part of a large team, and have expertise available to them in virtually every area of practice.

Through BKR International, various committees exist, such as the Technical Committee based in London, to provide member firms with technical resources, guidance, and practical experience to help our clients solve problems on a daily basis.
